

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

BETWEEN

THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA AT CHARLOTTE
Charlotte, North Carolina, United States of America

AND

UNIVERSIDAD DE LOS ANDES
Santiago, Chile

In recognition of their common interest in expanding collaboration with universities abroad, and in the belief that such collaboration contributes to scientific advancement, cultural awareness, and mutual understanding, The University of North Carolina at Charlotte and the Universidad de los Andes hereby agree to enter into this Memorandum of Understanding.

I

This Memorandum of Understanding is based on the principle of reciprocity and expresses the interest of both parties in exploring collaboration in such areas as student mobility, the exchange of scholars, and collaborative research. The two universities agree to encourage the development of such collaboration based on their respective academic and educational needs.

II

The parties recognize that the implementation of specific exchanges and research projects will depend upon the academic interests and expertise of individual faculty members and upon the availability of financial resources. Accordingly, the implementation of each exchange program based on this agreement shall be separately negotiated and approved by both universities.

III

Protocols for the implementation of each particular cooperative and collaborative activity shall be established, agreed to, and signed by the responsible authorities at both universities prior to the initiation of such activity. All activities conducted under the auspices of this Memorandum of Understanding will comply with the procedures, policies, and practices of each university as well as with the laws and regulations of the host country.

IV

This Memorandum of Understanding shall be effective on the date of its signing, and is subject to revision or modification by mutual written agreement. The Memorandum will remain valid until such time as either party terminates the agreement by giving the other party six months notice. In the event of termination, both parties hereby agree to honor all commitments to students, faculty, or staff currently participating in specific exchange activities between the two universities.
